Address of Exhibition Center Director

Dear organizers, participants and guests of exhibitions!

Congress and exhibition industry is undoubtedly of great significance in the modern world since it reflects global tendencies and social, economic and political situation in the country. Exhibition and congress events contribute to the development of economy in general and its separate sectors in particular.

Exhibitions, congresses, forums and conferences serve as places of interaction for producers, distributors, investors, clients and representatives of state authorities and business, which provides the unique possibility for experience exchange and solution of problems in various industries and contributes to expansion of existing borders of the market of goods and services.

Crocus Expo International Exhibition Center holds a leading position among expo venues of Russia, Eastern Europe and the CIS countries, conforming to the international standards of the expo industry and providing annually the opportunity to hold the largest expo and business events on the fairgrounds to more than 50 Russian and international companies.

For more than 20 years, Crocus Expo has been a reliable partner ensuring effective and long-term cooperation and thus contributing to achievement of common goals of the congress and exhibition industry.
